Dear Prospective Programme Participant,

We are pleased to inform you that the Institute will be offering its Programme on Understanding Bhagavad Gita: A Journey towards Leadership Excellence, during January 29 - February 01, 2025.

About Programme:

The Bhagavad Gita is one of the great Indian works in terms of literature and philosophy. As an ancient Indian scripture, it provides many ways to explore contemporary management concepts, conflicts, dilemmas, and trade-offs in business. Lessons from Bhagavad Gita suggest powerful ways to promote management practices that are consistent with business model and yet ethical. This course is focused on early reflections on those learnings.

The course will enable participants to develop competence to face challenging times in their career with aplomb and confidence. The programme aims to sensitise them on ways to develop themselves into effective leaders in the corporate world.

Programme Highlights:

- a) Values and ethics – Lessons from Bhagavad Gita
- b) Understanding behavioural orientation
- c) Understanding role, role conflict and outcome
- d) Essence of leadership excellence
- e) Managing self – A journey towards excellence and happiness

Who can attend:

The programme is intended for professionals and aspiring learners who would want to learn management techniques in decision making, leadership, motivation, strategy planning, negotiation, persuasion and building teams.

The applicants to the programme should have more than 5 years of work experience.

Last date for Early Bird Discount: The last date to avail early bird benefits is January 08, 2025.

Last date for Registration: The last date for receiving filled-in nominations is January 15, 2025.

We look forward to receiving your interest and participation in the programme.

Reach out to: Ms. Vidya Kadambari (Programme Coordinator) through either email: vidya-exed@iima.ac.in or through mobile: +91 70690 74821 for more information or any questions.
