Mr. Satya Pal Jain, Senior Advocate/Additional Solicitor
General, Government of India, has submitted that forty more Companies have been sent by the Central Government for deployment in the State of Haryana, particularly in Panchkula and its surrounding areas; besides, it is submitted that the deployment of Army has also been conveyed to the State of Haryana, which has been kept as a standby. It is accepted by Mr. B.R.
Mahajan, Advocate General, Haryana, that thirty-five Companies have reached.

Mr. B.R. Mahajan, Advocate General, Haryana, submits that evacuation of the crowds from Sectors 1 to 21 of Panchkula has been carried out except in a park in Sector 5, Panchkula; besides, there is some crowd in 'Nam Charcha Ghar' in Sector 23, Panchkula.

Mr. B.R. Mahajan, Advocate General, Haryana, has assured the Court that strict action would be taken in case there is any violence or arson of any kind from any section of the society. He has assured us that police force and paramilitary forces would be given free-hand to deal with the situation and act with force wherever and whenever required against any individual or any section of the society or organization.

Mr. Virat Amamath, Advocate, appearing for Dera Sacha Sauda, Sirsa (respondent No. 7) has submitted that appeals have been made to the followers of the 'Dera' for maintaining peace and returning to their homes. He has assured that peace would be maintained at all costs.

In the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, we direct that:-

- (i) All parties and every section of the society should maintain peace and harmony;
- (ii) In case anybody indulges in any kind of violence, arson, loot, etc., he or they should be dealt with firmly by use of force, if necessary;
- (iii) The police force and paramilitary forces would have free-hand to deal with the situation wherever and whenever required against any individual or any section of the society or organization;

(iv) In case of need, the Army shall be deployed and made operational.

(v) The police force shall make arrangements forthwith for capturing every moment of untoward situation through video-graphy by using video-cameras. Those who are indulging in any kind of violence, arson or breach of peace etc. shall be video-graphed and an FIR shall be registered against him/them;

(vi) In case any politician or anybody else including Ministers interferes in the enforcement of law, FIR be registered against him/them. In case of failure on the part of the police officer to register an FIR, similar action would be called against him;

(vii) No politician, leader, social-worker, spiritual leader, religious leader or any such organization shall make any provocative speech or statement, which may have the tendency to affect public order.

This order shall be applicable in the States of Haryana and Punjab as also Union Territory, Chandigarh.

We are sure that Media will play a pro-active and responsible role in this behalf.

The case be taken up today itself in post-lunch session.

Copy of the order be given under the signatures of the Court

Secretary of this Bench to Shri Dheeraj Jain, Advocate; Shri Pawan Girdhar, Additional Advocate General, Haryana; Shri P.P.S. Thethi, Additional Advocate General, Punjab; Shri D.S. Brar, Additional Public Prosecutor, U.T. Chandigarh; Shri Sumeet Goel, Advocate and Shri Virat Amarnath, Advocate.
