Subject:- Instructions/Guidelines regarding foreign visits.

Sir/Madam,

It has been observed that applications seeking permission for private visits abroad are received in this department and there is no intimation to the Minister-in-charge concerned in such cases though cases of official visits are routed through the Minister-in-charge concerned. The State Government has now decided that henceforth applications seeking permission for private visits abroad may invariably be sent to this department with opinion of the Minister-in-charge concerned.

2. You are requested to comply with these instructions in letter and spirit.

Yours faithfully,

(Madan Lal)

Deputy Secretary Administration
