Subject:- Regarding Online Human Rights Pledge- National Human Right Commission (NHRC).

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to invite your attention to the subject noted above and to inform that the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) has been making efforts for spreading human right awareness using a host of means such as, training and sensitization of government authorities and member of civil society, seminars/conferences, dissemination of information through its website, newsletters, publications and press releases etc.

2. To further increase the reach of the Commission and enhance human rights awareness, the Commission, in collaboration with India's National Informatics Centre (NIC) has recently launched an 'Online Human Rights Pledge' which is available at the link <https://pledge.mygov.in/nhrc/>. for all concerned citizens and civil society and government organizations to take. The NHRC is taking up the issue of Online Pledge by all Government and non-Government Officers throughout the country. This pledge can be taken by using following steps:-

- a. Pledge taker (individual or organization) can take pledge online by entering her/his details such as name, gender, aadhar no., date of birth, pin code, state, district, email, mobile no. etc., in the Entry Form.
- b. In the next step, after selection of language, pledge is read by the pledge taker.
- c. Pledge takers click on the 'Pledge' button to take pledge and enter a One Time Password (OTP) received on their mobile.
- d. After the above three steps, a certificate of pledge is generated. This certificate can be printed, downloaded and is also sent to email ID of the pledge-taker.

3. The matter has been considered by the Government. Accordingly, you are requested to take this pledge and also encourage the staff under your control to take the said 'Online Human Rights Pledge' by following the steps given above, so that they could make human rights the cornerstone in the discharge of their all official duties.

4. These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

Yours faithfully,

Under Secretary, General Administration, for the Chief Secretary to Government Haryana.
