NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 11th October, 2004

10.1126(E).—In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (gvi) of sub-section (2) of Section 28-1 of the Airports Authority of India Act, 1994 (55 of 1994), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Airport Appellate (Salaries, Allowances and other terms and conditions of service of Chairperson) Rules, 2004.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Act" means the Airports Authority of India Act, 1994 (55 of 1994);
- (b) "Chairperson" means a person appointed as Chairperson of the Tribunal under sub-section (4) of section 28-1 of the Act;
- (c) "Tribunal" means the Airport Appellate Tribunal established under sub-section (1) of section 28-1 of the Act;
- (d) All other words and expressions used and not defined in these rules but defined in the Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act.

Salary.—The Chairperson shall be paid such salary as admissible to serving Judge of a High Court:

Provided that in the case of an appointment of a person as a Chairperson, who is also a Judge of a High Court who is in receipt of or has received or has been entitled to receive any retirement benefit by way of pension, gratuity, or contribution to the Contributory Provident Fund or other forms of retirement, the pay of such Chairperson shall be reduced by the gross amount of pension or contribution to the Contributory Provident fund or any other form of benefit, if any, drawn or to be drawn by him.

Dearness allowance and city compensatory allowance.—The Chairperson shall be entitled to draw dearness allowance and city compensatory allowance at the rate payable to a Judge of a High Court.

Leave.—A person, on appointment as the Chairperson shall be entitled to leave as follows:—

Earned leave.—A person, on appointment as the Chairperson shall be entitled to earned leave at the rate of thirty days for every completed calendar year of service or part thereof.

Provided that the leave account shall be credited with earned leave, in advance, in two installments of fifteen days each on the first day of January and July of every calendar year.

Provided further that the leave account shall be credited with the close of previous half year shall be carried forward to the next half year, subject to the condition that the leave so carried forward plus credit for the half year do not exceed the maximum limit of one hundred and eighty days;

(ii) half pay leave on medical certificate or on private affairs at the rate of twenty days in respect of each completed year of service and the leave salary for half pay leave shall be equivalent to half of the leave salary admissible during the earned leave;

(iii) leave on half pay may be commuted to full pay leave at the discretion of the President of India. Provided it is taken on medical grounds and is supported by a medical certificate by a competent medical authority;

(iv) extraordinary leave without pay and allowances up to a maximum period of one hundred and eighty days in one term of office.

6. Leave sanctioning authority.- The President of India shall be the authority competent to sanction leave to the Chairperson.

7. Pension/Provident Fund.- In case a serving Judge is holding the post of Chairperson, shall count for pension to be drawn in accordance with the rules of the service to which he belongs. He shall also be governed by the provisions of the General Provident Fund (Central Services) Rules, 1960. In all other cases, a person shall be entitled to Contributory Provident Fund (India) Rules, 1962.

8. Traveling Allowances.- The Chairperson while on tour or on transfer (including the journey undertaken to join the Tribunal or on the expiry of his term with the Tribunal to proceed to his home town) shall be entitled to the traveling allowances, daily allowances, transportation of personal effects and other similar matters at the same scales and at the same rates as are applicable to a judge of High Court under the provision of the High Court Judge (Traveling Allowances) Rules, 1956.

9. Leave Travel Concession.- The Chairperson shall be entitled to leave travel concession at the same rates and at the same scale as are applicable to a Judge of a High Court.

10. Facility of conveyance.- The Chairperson shall be entitled to a staff car and one hundred and fifty litres of petrol every month or actual consumption of petrol per month, whichever is less.

11. Accommodation.- (1) Every person appointed as the Chairperson shall be eligible subject to availability to the use of official residence from the general pool accommodation of the type admissible to a Group 'A' officer of the Central Government, who is working at the place where such tribunal is located and drawing an equivalent pay on payment of the licence fee at the rates specified by the Central Government from time to time.

(37) 18.6.11 60

(a) Where the Chairperson occupies an official residence beyond permissible limits, he shall be liable to pay additional licence fee or penal rent, as the case may be, and he shall be liable to eviction in accordance with the rules applicable to Central Government servants.

Where the Chairperson does not avail of facility of official residence under rule (1), he shall be entitled to House Rent Allowance as admissible to 'A' officers of the Central Government, drawing equivalent pay.

For medical treatment.- The Chairperson shall be entitled to medical and hospital facilities as provided in the Contributory Health Services Scheme and in places where the Central Health Services Scheme is not in force, the said Chairperson shall be entitled to the facilities as provided in the Central Medical Attendance Rules, 1944.

Residual provision.- Matters relating to the conditions of services of the Chairperson with respect to which no express provision has been made in these rules shall be referred in each case to the Central Government for its decision and the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be binding on the said Chairperson.

Power to relax.- The Central Government shall have power to relax the provisions of these rules in respect of any class or categories of persons.
