Sub: Inviting nominations of Officers for One-Week In-service Residential Training Programme on 'Negotiations in Public Placemaking: Opportunities in Urban Leadership' at the Indian Institute for Human Settlements, Bengaluru under the aegis of the Department of Personnel and Training

Dear Sir,

Greetings from the Indian Institute for Human Settlements (IIHS - www.iihs.co.in).

IIHS is a national education institution committed to the equitable, sustainable and efficient transformation of Indian settlements. IIHS aims to establish an independently funded and managed Institution of Eminence focused on the challenges and opportunities of India's urban transition.

We are pleased to invite nominations for the one week In Service Residential Training Programme on 'Negotiations in Public Placemaking: Opportunities in Urban Leadership', from 23rd to 27th September 2024. This programme is meant for In-Service Training of Officers of the All India Services (IAS, IPS & IFS), officers working under Central Staffing Scheme (CSS) and officers of the Central Secretariat Service and Central Secretariat Stenographer Service (CSSS) (DS/Sr. PPS and above).

The fees for the programme will be reimbursed to IIHS directly by DoPT.

IIHS is a preferred capacity building partner with the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA), Ministry of Jal Shakti (MoJS), Ministry of Road Transport and Highways (MoRTH). IIHS also has a long-term partnership with Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration (LBSNAA), under which it has been supporting the Phase I to V training of IAS officers since 2015. IIHS is internationally reputed for the quality of its teaching and learning and has trained over 15,000 learners from the public and private sectors, and academia through its capacity building function. IIHS, in the past, has successfully launched and delivered five batches of In-service training programmes under the aegis of the DoPT from the years 2017-18 to 2023-24. This programme aims to prepare the officers to professionally engage with the complex environment of urban development and build their ability to practice in it. Further details are attached with this letter for your perusal.

We request and appreciate if you can kindly nominate relevant and interested officers to this programme on or before 5th September 2024 as per DoPT norms. Registration/nomination procedure is available at the DoPT Website for reference. We look forward to welcoming the nominated officers to this programme. For further information, please contact

Learning Objectives

This programme has been designed to:

- Understand how various functions of public administration come into play in the case of public placemaking
- Develop sensitivity for the concepts that define good public places and what public placemaking entails as a process
- Understand the range of stakeholders and their claims, along with the considerations of public policy, economics, ecology, community, inclusion and equity that are involved in public placemaking
- Learn negotiation theories that may be applicable, discuss with respect to context, identify gaps, leverage mandates and individually define what leadership in public placemaking calls for

Programme Design and Pedagogy

The training programme will run for five days. A range of pedagogical approaches will be used to enable better understanding and learning.

Interactive Lectures: Participants will engage with IIHS faculty and experts in interactive lectures that aid in perspective setting, experience sharing and peer learning.

Case Studies/ Field Visits: Case-based and site-based learning are central to IIHS's pedagogy, enabling working backwards from real challenges at the workplace.

Masterclasses: Participants will have the opportunity to meet thought-leaders and practitioners, to learn about their work and the challenges they face in different disciplines and domains of urban practice.

Day 3: Role of public administrators in place making: Negotiation frameworks

|-----|--|---|
| 3.1 | Negotiation Strategies | Gain an overview of some key negotiation frameworks and behaviours and discuss how they can be applied in the public place making context. |
| 3.2 | Hands on Activity: Negotiation Strategies | Participants will assume various roles and negotiate with each other in a public placemaking context to create win-win scenarios. |
| 3.3 | Conflict Management | Understand how conflicts emerge and what are some behaviours and strategies for better management of conflict across stakeholders involved in public placemaking. |
| 3.4 | Hands on Activity: Conflict Management | Participants assume the role of different stakeholders, create and experience conflict, and explore ways to manage and resolve conflict. |

Day 4: Role of public administrators in place making: Leadership

| | | |
|-----|--|---|
| 4.1 | Discussions with BBMP senior administrators on Leadership | In this session, participants will learn about BBMP's approach & partnership in co-creating inclusive public spaces. |
| 4.2 | Visit to Town Hall: led by a local urban design practice from Bangalore | In this visit, participants will be given an overview of the historical significance of the Town Hall of Bangalore and its role in public participation and negotiation throughout the city's evolution. |
| 4.3 | Leaderspeak | Gain insights into the various civic engagement and urban renewal initiatives led by the Bangalore Agenda Task Force (BATF) and creation of the City Connect platform among other initiatives which have inspired citizens to become agents of change. The session will also address the importance of sustainable financing models as well as empowering communities to take ownership of the built environment in cities. |
| 4.4 | Leaderspeak | In this session, participants will be introduced to the TenderSURE and K100 projects. Through the presenter's own experiences and real-life examples, the session will highlight the different collaborative efforts between various stakeholders including community, government bodies and urban practitioners. |
| | Film Screening and Networking Dinner | Participants get an opportunity to meet with diverse IIHS faculty and experts, as well as external experts to enable informal discussions. |

Participant Testimonials

{ "It was an excellent experience overall. Not many such trainings are available in urban governance. Definitely, it is going to be very helpful for officers interested in the urban sector. Logistics and accommodation were really pleasant. Lastly, I would like to record my appreciation for all the team members who exhibited courtesy and professionalism par excellence."

{ "Very methodically planned curriculum and logistics arrangement. The team of coordinators were cordial and helpful at every leg of the training. Accommodation and logistics were of good quality and were more than satisfactory. Course contents, presentation and field visits were all of high relevance."

{ "Overall experience was very good & memorable. Accommodation and logistics are good. Study material given is excellent. Faculties are knowledgeable and best. This course will help me in working for urban governance in a better manner."

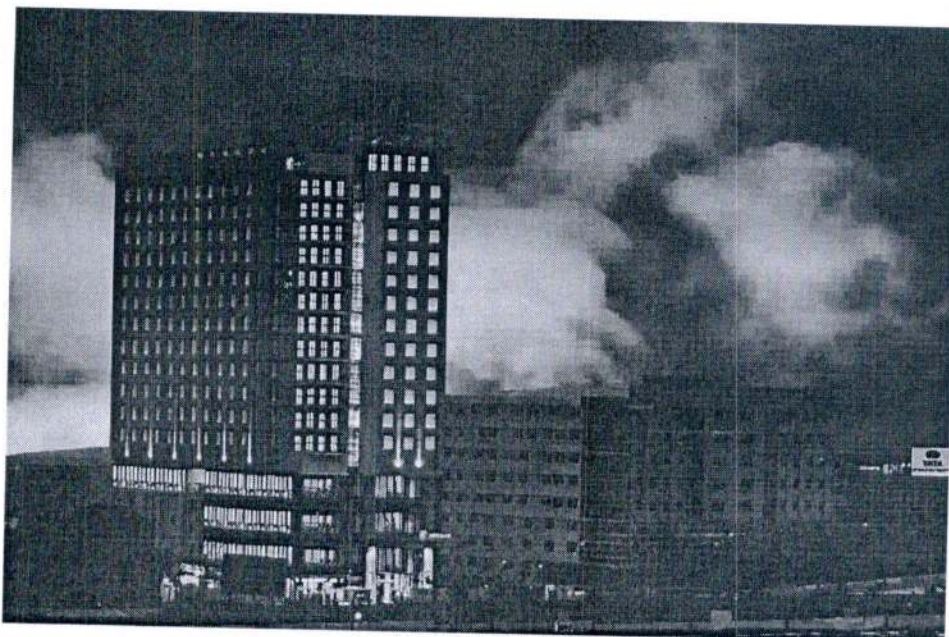

{ "It was an excellent one. It adds more knowledge about urban development like water supply, transport, housing, etc. Accommodation was very nice. Had detailed information at national level."

{ "It was a very interesting, well-designed course with a great team at IIHS and great presenters. Accommodation and logistics were excellent."

{ "I feel that the course is well designed and meets the objectives. It has a certain degree of freshness and is different from run of the mill training organised elsewhere. Please retain this novelty factor."

Note: The above testimonials are from participants from various programmes conducted for the DoPT between 2017 and 2023.
