Concept Note

National Level Training Programme on

“Post-Disaster Recovery and Reconstruction”

Date: 23rd to 27th January 2026

NIDM Vijayawada Campus, Andhra Pradesh.

1. Background and Rationale

India is among the most disaster-prone countries in the world, exposed to a wide range of natural and human-induced hazards such as floods, cyclones, earthquakes, droughts, landslides, heatwaves, industrial accidents, and biological emergencies. The increasing frequency and intensity of disasters, exacerbated by climate change, rapid urbanisation, environmental degradation, and socio-economic vulnerabilities, have highlighted the critical importance of effective post-disaster recovery and reconstruction.

Post-disaster recovery is not merely about restoring what was lost but presents an opportunity to reduce future risks, strengthen resilience, and promote sustainable development. Effective recovery requires sound policy frameworks, robust institutional coordination, comprehensive post-disaster damage and needs assessment (PDNA), adequate financing mechanisms, and the integration of the “Build Back Better” principle. Recognising these imperatives, the National Institute of Disaster Management (NIDM) proposes a five-day National- Level Training Programme on “Post-Disaster Recovery and Reconstruction” to strengthen the capacities of policymakers and programme managers engaged in recovery planning and implementation.

2. Aim of the Programme

The programme aims to enhance participants’ understanding of long-term recovery and reconstruction frameworks, policies, and institutional mechanisms in India, with a focus on post-disaster damage and needs assessment, sectoral recovery challenges, financing strategies, and risk-informed recovery planning.

3. Objectives of the Programme

The specific objectives of the programme are to:

- Familiarise participants with long-term recovery and rehabilitation policies and frameworks, and the importance of post-disaster damage and needs assessment.

- Discuss key issues and challenges related to housing, infrastructure, and livelihood recovery, including psycho-social support and gender considerations.
- Explain damage assessment processes and financing strategies for reconstruction and long-term recovery, with reference to past disaster recovery experiences and “Build Back Better” practices.
- Introduce the components and processes of effective long-term recovery planning.

4. Target Participants

The programme is primarily intended for senior policymakers and programme/project managers, particularly officials involved in post-disaster damage assessment and recovery planning. Participants are expected from Disaster Management and Revenue & Relief Departments, as well as key sectoral departments such as agriculture, infrastructure, public works, housing, and allied sectors. Participation from both core disaster management and sectoral departments will facilitate a holistic and multi-sectoral understanding of recovery and reconstruction.

5. Programme Structure and Key Themes

The five-day programme will be conducted through expert lectures, case studies, group discussions, practical exercises, and experience-sharing sessions. The key themes include:
