The Parliament Library is the second largest and one of the finest and richest repositories in the country after the National Library, Kolkata. It has holdings of more than 1.8 million (approx.) volumes of printed books, reports, acts and bills, Government Publications, debates, gazettes and other documents, including periodicals, newspapers and publications brought out by the Lok Sabha Secretariat.

The Parliament Library caters to the information needs of the Members of Parliament, officials of Departments and Ministries of the Government of India, research scholars and students of universities and endeavors to acquire important books in Hindi, English and all the Indian languages included in the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India.

It is a matter of great pride that the Parliament Library has completed more than 100 years. During the centenary celebration, the Hon'ble Speaker directed that the library be opened for the general public also.

The Parliament Library does not depend only on the direct purchase of books and publications for enriching its collections, as the books and publications are also received for addition to the holdings of the Parliament Library on complimentary basis also, presented by the Members of Parliament, State Governments, State Legislative Assemblies, High Dignitaries, Institutions, and Authors, etc.

In view of the above, to further enrich the collection of the Parliament Library, I request you to kindly issue directions to all the concerned Departments under your jurisdiction to supply books to Parliament Library pertaining to our core subject areas viz. Law, Politics & Government and State Laws, Constitution and Constitutional History, Elections, International Relations, Agriculture, Biographies, Economics, Education, Energy, Labour Problems, Literature.

I hereby request you to kindly ensure not to send textbooks, books on advanced technical subjects and pure sciences, etc., as the collection of Library is used by Members of Parliament, Research Scholars, etc.
