Subject - Nomination Request for Training Programmes (January–February 2026)

Respected Sir,

I am pleased to inform you about the forthcoming batches of training programmes to be conducted by the Parliamentary and Administrative Research Institute (PARI) during the period January to February 2026. These programmes are specially curated for officers working in Ministries/Departments, Autonomous Bodies, and Public Sector Undertakings under the Central Government, with a focus on strengthening institutional understanding and administrative capacity.

PARI has, over the years, successfully conducted 73 domestic training programmes and 23 international training programmes tailored for officers serving in Ministries, Departments, Autonomous Bodies, Public Sector Enterprises (PSEs) under the Union and State Governments, as well as State Legislative Assemblies. These capacity-building initiatives have covered a wide range of governance-related themes, including Parliamentary Procedures, Privileges and Protocols, Committee Systems, Public and Hospital Procurement, Ethics and Good Governance, Preventive Vigilance, Disciplinary Proceedings, Vigilance Management, and Gender Sensitization, Public Health Policy Administration, Anti Corruption and Good Governance, Mental Health System Developments, among others.

With the guiding principles of Mission Karmayogi and the long-term Vision of Viksit Bharat by 2047, these programs have made significant contributions in upskilling government officers by enhancing their administrative competencies and aligning them with people-centric approaches in governance.
