Subject: Pre-mature promotion to higher post - Starting Salary.

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to invite your attention to the instruction issued vide Haryana Government Letter No. 2/10/92-2GS-I dated 22nd April 1994 and other instructions issued from time to time on the subject noted above and to say that consequent upon the implementation of revised pay structure as per Sixth Pay Commission comprising grade pay and running pay bands w.e.f. 01-01-2006 vide HCS (RP) Rules, 2008, the instructions issued vide letter No. 2/10/92-2GS-I dated 22/04/1994 are modified to the following extent.

- (i). If on premature promotion, the minimum of pay in pay band of the promotional post is higher than the pay drawn in pay band of lower post, the minimum of pay in pay band of higher post may be allowed plus grade pay of higher post till the completion of deficiency in experience. In case, during the deficiency in experience the presumptive pay in pay band of lower post exceeds the minimum of the higher post, the pay in pay band of lower post will be protected from time to time and in addition he will be eligible for the grade pay of higher post.
  - (ii). If at the time of premature promotion, the pay drawn in pay band of lower post is higher than the minimum of pay in pay band of higher post, the pay drawn in pay band of lower post may be protected from time to time.
  - (iii). The pay/option under the provisions of HCS (RP) Rules, 2008 wherever applicable shall be fixed / exercised only from the date of completion of experience on lower post.
2. It is requested that the above instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

Superintendent General Services-I,
for Chief Secretary to Government Haryana
