D.O. No. 10/1/2010-PRP&P

January 19, 2010

The National Human Rights Commission is deeply concerned about the protection of the rights of disadvantaged sections of the society like Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. In the meeting of the Statutory Full Commission held on 20.11.2009, the Commission noted that the issue of bogus caste certificate is becoming a serious issue and adequate remedial measures are not being taken in this regard by the concerned authorities. Use of bogus certificate by ineligible persons is depriving genuine candidates belonging to SCs and STs from the opportunities in government jobs and educational institutions. It is a serious matter of concern that such incidents are on increase day by day.

The Commission desire that a fool-proof mechanism may be put in place by the concerned authorities to ensure that no bogus caste certificate is issued to non-eligible persons and the persons resorting to such practices and using such bogus certificate are brought to the book in an efficient and effective manner.

You are, therefore, requested to take necessary action in this regard immediately. The action taken may kindly be intimated to the Commission in due course.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(J.P. Meena)
