No. 9/16/03-3D-II

Dated: December 16th, 2019.

Subject:- Welfare of Family Members of Serving Indian Armed Forces Personnel and Central Armed Police Forces (Paramilitary Forces)

Kindly refer to the subject cited above.

2. As you are well aware that the Indian Armed Forces Personnel and Central Armed Police Forces (Paramilitary Forces) posted in far flung areas and inhospitable terrain for defence of our borders and in counter insurgency operations often face problems pertaining to their native villages regarding their lands, properties, house, harassment by anti social and inimical elements. Families of the soldiers who are guarding our borders against the external incursion as well as supporting the internal security of the country should be provided required social support. Needless to add that in the national interest it is very important to keep morale of our Indian Armed Forces Personnel and Central Armed Police Forces (Paramilitary Forces) high as they remain engaged in defending the borders in difficult circumstances.

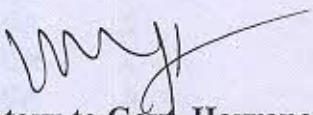

3. Government of India and the State Government accords high priority to the Welfare and redressal of Grievances of members of their families and their dependants of serving Indian Armed Forces Personnel and Central Armed Police Forces (Paramilitary Forces) Indian Armed Forces.

4. The State Government has been emphasizing the need to redress these problems promptly, positively and sympathetically. Please direct all the officers and officials of your Department to accord high priority in attending the complaints and grievances of the family members and dependents of serving Indian Armed Forces Personnel and Central Armed Police Forces (Paramilitary Forces). It is also advised that necessary arrangements be made to have periodical monitoring regarding redressal of such grievances at your level.

5. All the Deputy Commissioners are also directed to further strengthen the effective use of institutional mechanism and by creating new forums at the local level and also to instruct all

6. It is also requested that when a Soldier or his family member approach the Govt. Office then they should be treated with love and respect and all the efforts be made to resolve their problem expeditiously. This will ensure that the soldier is care free from his family problems and will be able to discharge his duties with high morale for the safety and security of the Nation.

7. Please acknowledge the receipt of this letter.
