INNOVATIONS IN GOVERNANCE

29 NOVEMBER 2026 TO 3 DECEMBER 2026

Jointly Sponsored by the

SINGAPORE COOPERATION PROGRAMME

and the

INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, QATAR

under the

SINGAPORE – QATAR
ASIA-MIDDLE EAST DIALOGUE (AMED) TRAINING PROGRAMME

Singapore Cooperation Programme

The Singapore Cooperation Programme (SCP) was established in 1992 to share Singapore's development experiences with other developing countries, with an emphasis on technical assistance. As a country whose only resource is its people, Singapore believes that human resource development is vital for sustained economic and social progress.

To date, over 165,000 officials from more than 180 countries, territories, and intergovernmental organisations have participated in SCP courses and study visits. The SCP is managed by the Development Partnerships Directorate of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Singapore.

Institute of Public Administration, Qatar

The Institute of Public Administration (IPA) was established in 1964 and has achieved significant milestones throughout its journey. In 1997, it was re-established as the Institute for Administrative Development, expanding its mandate to strengthen the capabilities of government employees and support organizational development across the public sector. In 2021, a notable transformation occurred with the establishment of the Civil Services and Government Development Bureau, with which the IPA became affiliated, demonstrating its essential role in developing the public sector. This evolution was not just a change in structure but also a reinforcement of its role in enhancing governmental operations and services.

The IPA has dedicated itself to fostering cooperation with government entities, aiming to fulfill their evolving training and developmental requirements. The IPA offers a comprehensive range of 1,393 training courses, designed to meet the diverse needs of trainees. By 2023, these efforts had successfully empowered 30,000 government employees and significantly contributed to developing the public sector by elevating government employees and fostering innovation and efficiency across the national workforce.

Course Objectives

This course will share Singapore's experience in public policy and service delivery innovation, as well as the capabilities the public service needs to stay relevant.

Synopsis

Topics to be covered include:

- Singapore's approach to governance and public service transformation
- Building a digital economy and fostering digital inclusion
- Enabling design-driven innovation in the public service
- Leading organisational transformation
- The public service as convenor for citizen engagement and participation

Methodology

This course will be conducted through lectures and discussions and will include group discussions, sharing sessions, Q&A, case studies, evaluation sessions, experiential activities, and other learning methodologies, using suitable education technology tools to enhance interactivity during the sessions.

Course Duration and Venue

This course will be conducted from 29 November 2026 to 3 December 2026 at the Asia-Middle East Dialogue (AMED) Regional Training Centre for Public Administration (RTCPA) in Doha, Qatar.

Address:

Institute of Public Administration –

Invited Countries
